

Introducing new Divorce E-Services on the SYC Portal

Syariah Court will progressively implement E-Services for divorce applications from 30 November 2022.

New E-Services will be available to public users, and they can look forward to a smoother online experience with 5 key features:

I. Filing of Court documents at any time

Online filing of divorce-related applications and documents through E-Services on the SYC Portal.

II. Automated flows for form-filling

Answer YES/NO questions on the forms to be submitted with clear indicators of incomplete sections.

III. System prompts at your service

Receive a notification on your personal dashboard when there is a new incoming task that requires action.

IV. Authentication of Court Orders and Divorce Certificates

Every Court Order and Divorce Certificate will have an nSeal QR code to verify authenticity.

V. Convenient Tooltips

Explanations for legal terms will be easily available through E-Services on the SYC Portal.

Implementation dates of new E-Services:

I. 30 November 2022 – Registration for the Marriage Counselling Programme

Applicants can make online applications for the Marriage Counselling Programme from 30 November 2022.

II. 1 December 2022 – Filing of Originating Summons for divorce

Applicants can submit online filing of Originating Summons through the SYC Portal on 1 December 2022

III. 2 December to 6 December 2022 - Other Divorce E-services

Applicants can submit other Court documents online from 2 December 2022.
